If you have an advisor and some committee members, please list them and have them sign as completely as you can to date, and return to the Graduate Director. When you have a complete committee, please obtain the signature of your main advisor before returning this form to the Graduate Director. Any subsequent changes must then be cleared both with your main advisor and with the Graduate Director (as must any interim changes). If your original form becomes too messy, you may start a new one, but please keep the old one attached. See the Anthropology Graduate Student Handbook for further details of committee composition.
